NAMES.

A.

G. Κονυζα.

L. Conysa.

I. Pulicaria.

G. Geelemubrts.

F. Herba a ux pu-ces.

S. Zargatonia.

D. Vlooikruyd.

FLEABANE.

PART

The

PREPA

An

PLACE.

Fleabane grows in moist places.

DESCRIPTION.

The Root is firm, Woody, Crooked, with few Fibres and of lour. The Stalk 1, is cover'd with a brownish Crimson Bark. 2, are of a light but good Green: Soft, hairy, without footstalks round the Stalk.) those near the Root are near two inches long, decreasing in size as they grow higher on the Stalk, being very fu The Cup 3, is scaly, cover'd with a soft down, it has a Flower 4, of (from which by some 'tis called Starr-wort) of a good Yellow in the Middle are of a Greenish Turn, before they open. Th Yellow. 5 a Flower in front. 6 another Cut to shew the Seeds which are of a Silver hue. 7 one Leaf of the flower with th Style. 8 a Seed with a Floret and Style.

VIRTUES.

The Smell of this Plant drives away Gnats and Fleas. Th is Commended by some for the Itch.

T. Sheldrake delin.